

Trial/Pilot Event Report

(Event Supervisor-please return completed report to gjputz@sbcglobal.net)

Name: _____ E-mail address: _____

1. Name of Event: _____ State: _____

2. Are you the Author of this event: (Circle one) YES NO

3. Division (Circle one): B C B/C

4. Number of participants: Teams _____ Students _____

5. Were the rules on the web site modified to improve them in any way: (Circle one): YES NO

6. If yes, please describe the modifications and attach a copy of the modified rules: _____

7. What was the range of scores for this event: _____

8. Explain what you liked about this event: _____

10. Explain what you didn't like about this event: _____

11. What was the students' reaction to this event (Attach student evaluations if you have them):

12. What recommendations would you suggest to improve this event: _____

13. How difficult was it to get materials to run this event: _____

14. Are there teaching resources available for this event (circle one): YES NO

15. Where/What are these resources: _____

15. What grade would you give this event (see grading below)? (Circle one) A B C D F

16. What Division would you recommend for this event? (Circle one) B C B/C

17. What category does this event belong in?

Chemistry

Inquiry/Nature

Physical Science

Earth/Space Science

Life Science

Technology

18. Why should other states try this event? _____

19. Additional Comments: _____

Grading for Question 15 above

A - this event fits into the current curriculum for this grade level and the students were enthusiastic about it

B - this event fits the current curriculum for this grade level, but the students were not enthusiastic about participating it

C - this event is not related to the current curriculum for this grade level, but it is fun and the students really enjoyed participating in it

D - this is a fun event, but only a few students participated

F - this event did not work out as we thought it would and/or the students did not enjoy it

(Event Supervisor/Director-please return this form and if you have them, the Summary of the completed student reports to gjputz@sbcglobal.net)