Dear Science Olympiad State Champions:

Congratulations! Because of your team's outstanding performance at your State Science Olympiad Tournament, you are invited to represent your state at the Science Olympiad National Tournament hosted by Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, on May 31-June 1, 2019.

You and your team are to be commended for your outstanding achievement and your commitment to excellence in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics education. We wish you good luck at the Science Olympiad National Tournament and we are confident that you'll enjoy the competition and all of the related ceremonies and activities!

- To accept this invitation, please complete the 2019 Invitation Acceptance Form online. You are asked to accept this invitation no later than 10 days after receipt of the electronic copy of this letter. If you are unable to or don't accept this invitation within 10 days, it will be extended to the 2nd or 3rd place team.
- Watch for updates on the Cornell Website or for an email from Cornell University that may contain site specific details or requirements.
- The National Tournament Team Numbers will be posted on Science Olympiad's 2019 National Tournament page around April 1st. If two teams within your Division advance from your state, the first-place team will use the lower number.
- You will need to bring the Science Olympiad Final Team Registration Form (completed and signed by the school's principal and head coach) when you register your team at the Science Olympiad National Tournament in May.

Proposed event schedules and other tournament, dorms, hotel and transportation information can be found on Cornell University's 2019 National Tournament website.

On behalf of the Science Olympiad Executive Board, I want to congratulate you on your team's success. We look forward to seeing you at the tournament!

Best Regards,

Dr. Gerard J. Putz
President & Co-Founder
Science Olympiad
